

Suggested Instrumental Music for a Wedding

There being usually four occasions in the service when instrumental music is required, two of the main occasions are when the bride arrives and at the end of the service when the married couple walk out of church. The suggestions below may help you choose relevant music for these two main occasions but there are many other pieces of music you can have.

Arrival of the Bride
Bridal March from Lohengrin	Wagner
Prelude to the Te Deum	Charpentier
Trumpet Tune	Percell, Stanley
Trumpet Voluntary	J. Clarke
Fanfare for the Bride	Arthur Bliss
March	Lefebre-Wely
Hornpipe from 'Water Music'	Handel
Minuet from 'Royal Fireworks'	Handel
Trumpet Voluntary	John Stanley
A Trumpet Minuet	Alfred Hollins
Fanfare	Arthur Wills
Processional: St Anthony Chorale	Haydn

After the Service
Wedding March from 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'	Mendelson
Hornpipe in F from the Water Music	Handel
Toccata from Symphony No. 5	Widor