Praise – Praise Ye The Lord Hallelujah (NEW VERSION)

<https://youtu.be/WuODF9Kbgw>

This week's reading is taken from — Mark 5:21-43 Jesus was beside the lake and a great crowd gathered around Him. One of the officials from the synagogue, whose name was Jairus, fell at the feet of Jesus and pleaded with Him, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus along with the large crowd followed him. There was also a woman who had heard about Jesus and had been ill for a very long time and she was desperate to get near to Him. 'If I can touch even His clothes, I will be well again,' she told herself. She did touch His cloak and immediately was made well, she felt that her suffering had stopped. Jesus was immediately aware that someone had touched His garment. He was aware that power had gone out from Him and asked who had touched His clothes. His disciples said, 'You see how the crowd is pressing around you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' They were amazed that Jesus was so specific. The woman came forward, she was frightened because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at the feet of Jesus and told Him the truth. Jesus said, 'My daughter, your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.' The woman was happy because her suffering had stopped. While He was still talking people arrived from Jairus's house saying that his daughter had died and there is no need to put the Master to any more trouble. Jesus said to Jairus, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' When they reached the house Jesus went in with Peter, James and John and along with the child's parents went to the place where the child lay. He took the child by the hand and said, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up'. The girl got up and began to walk about. Jesus told them not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat. In both these accounts of Jesus performing the miracles it did depend on those with whom He was working putting their faith and trust in Him. What does having 'faith' mean to us as individual? How much faith do we have in Jesus? How can we show that we have faith? How can we increase our faith?

Colouring sheet

I attach a colouring sheet for you to enjoy.

Prayer

Two little eyes to look to God,
Two little ears to hear God's word,
Two little lips to sing God's praise,
Two little feet to walk God's ways,
Two little hands to do God's will
And one little heart to love him still

Amen

(during the prayer point to the eyes etc)

Praise – God's love is so wonderful.
